W. F. GRIFFITIS, J.E., General Freight Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has issued a notice to agents to the effect that articles intended for exhibition at the Pittsburgh Exposition will be carried to that city at regular rates, and, if unsold, returned free, upon the proper certificate. DRUNKEN KELLY,—Frank Kelly does not carry his Murphy with him—at least he forgot its precepts last night. He was found lying across the pavement on Water street by Officer Fleming, and run into the city lockup.

THE CHEAPEST ROOF IS ZEE GRAVEL ROOF.—George Crumbacker, of this city, is now fully prepared to put on gravel roofs in the most improved method, and warrants his work to give satisfaction, both as to resisting fire and turning water. The tar used is put through a process that frees it from oil and benzole, and no matter how great the heat, it will not run. It is equally efficient in roofs of every conceivable pitch. Mr. Crumbacker keeps on hand roofing cement and cement for tanks and sidewalks of the best quality, which he offers for sale at the lowest rates. This roof has stood fifteen years in this city.

DR. E. A. FARQUIAR'S MEDICATED CRACKERS, for the relief and cure of every form of dyspepsia, or other functional disease of the stomach and bowless, as well as all sympathetic affections arising therefrom. There is no taste or smell of medicine about them—nothing to indicate to persons using them that they are taking medicine. Their principles are so combined as to affect the system by insensible action, which gives a quick, healthy and complete digestion, cures the disease by removing the cause. For sale by druggists and grocers generally.
